Part 3: Details Discussion:

Q. What do the people mostly do in their leisure time in your country?

A. We have a large country with a large population from different ethnicities and cultures. Their leisure activities thus vary to a great extent. Leisure activities among the city dwellers and villagers are not same also. But commonly people go outside for shopping, to meet friends, to watch movies in their leisure time. Many people walk in the morning and evening and also visit relatives and friends. Young generation mostly prefer to hang out with their friends and use internet in their leisure time. There are some sports lovers as well who mostly play different outdoor sports in their leisure time.

Q. What's the difference between holidays today and 5 years ago and the reasons for the change?

A. Five years back, people were not much concerned about their holidays. Bu now, people give more importance for their holidays especially in planning stage. In addition, in the past people spent maximum one or two days for holidays. At present, one week is considered as minimum span of time for holidays. The selection holiday destinations have also changed.

Q. Do you think people will spend more time on leisure or working in the future?

A. In terms of time, working hours would be far more than the time spent in leisure activities in the future. But people will be more conscious about the importance of having thoughtful and pleasant leisure activities.
